UNIONS RESPOND TO NATIONAL PAY OFFER

Local government 'Green Book' pay 2024

In response to the National Employers' full and final pay offer, UNISON and Unite are recommending to their members that they reject the offer. GMB will remain neutral and consult without making a recommendation on whether its members should accept or reject the offer.

Craftworker 'Red Book' pay 2024

Unite will be consulting its members with a recommendation to reject the employers' offer. GMB will be consulting its members on a neutral basis, as per its main NJC consultation.

Chief Officer pay 2024

Both GMB and UNISON will be consulting their members on a neutral basis, without making a recommendation on whether their members should accept or reject the employers' offer.

Chief Executive pay 2024

The Staff Side (ALACE) has welcomed the employers' offer but will not formally accept it until the main NJC pay deal has been finalised.

WORKSHOP FOR NEWLY ELECTED COUNCILLORS

Due to the general election, our highly anticipated new councillor workshop has been moved to Friday 12 July from 13:30pm to 4pm. A networking lunch will take place before the session from 12:30pm. Please note that this session will take place directly after EMC's AGM, which will run from 9.30am.

This workshop, which will be facilitated by EMC, Councillors & the LGA, aims to continue supporting newly elected members with their learning journey through networking, reflection, information updates & taster skills sessions all included.

This is an informal, interactive session where you will benefit from the learning, the opportunity to ask questions & making new connections with both councillors & officers. Find out more and book to attend:
