

Bal Kaur Howard Training Safeguarding Solutions for Professionals

HARMFUL PRACTICES & MODERN SLAVERY / TRAFFICKING

When: Modern Slavery: Monday 26th Oct OR 2nd November 2020 9.30 to 12.30
Harmful Practices: Tuesday 3rd November 2020 9.30 to 16.15

Where: Virtual / Online using Microsoft Teams

To include:

- Honour Based Abuse (Forced Marriage, FGM, Breast Ironing / Flattening & Spirit Possession)
- Modern Slavery / Trafficking (Children & Adults)

Harmful Practices day £95.00 per delegate
Modern Slavery half day at £50.00 per delegate
OR both for £125.00

Training to include materials / e-packs
Spaces are limited.

Trainer

Bal was been employed by Suffolk Constabulary for 7½ years in their Domestic Abuse Team since 2009, offering her "expertise" on cases and writing safeguarding policies for Honour Based Abuse, Forced Marriage & FGM for the Constabulary & Local Safeguarding Boards.

From a personal experience, Bal was born in India and bought to the UK aged one. She was forced into a marriage at the age of 17 in this country. Bal's words "I refuse to take my past into the future, and regard myself to be an empowered survivor – my darkest past is now my greatest asset".

Testimonials

I have seen you deliver face to face and your delivery virtually was interactive and just as powerful'

"The trainer was excellent. So easy to talk to, kept the training interactive and kept me thinking. Best training I have been on in a long time"

"Brilliant! Very passionate about the subject, very clear explanations – varied teaching tools which maintained my interest"

"This was undoubtedly the best training course I have EVER done. Trainer is very knowledgeable and pitched the course just right"

For further information, email info@bkhtraining.co.uk

Or, come and visit us online at www.bkhtraining.co.uk

