

Indarjit Singh
Security Industry Authority
Investigations Officer
East Region

Who are the SIA

Security Industry Authority

- Established by the Private Security Industry Act 2001
- Help protect the public, reduce criminality, raise standards and recognise quality service
- Independent, reporting to the Home Secretary

Licence Sectors

Security Industry Authority

- Cash and valuables in transit
- Close Protection
- Door Supervisor
- Security Guarding
- Public Space Surveillance (CCTV)
- Vehicle Immobilisation (NI only)
- Key holding

Facts and Figures

Security Industry Authority

357,351 licences held by 314,881 people

Door Supervision – 56%

Security Guarding – 23%

CCTV – 13%

Close Protection – 4%

CVIT – 2%

Key Holding + Vehicle Immobilisation – 1%

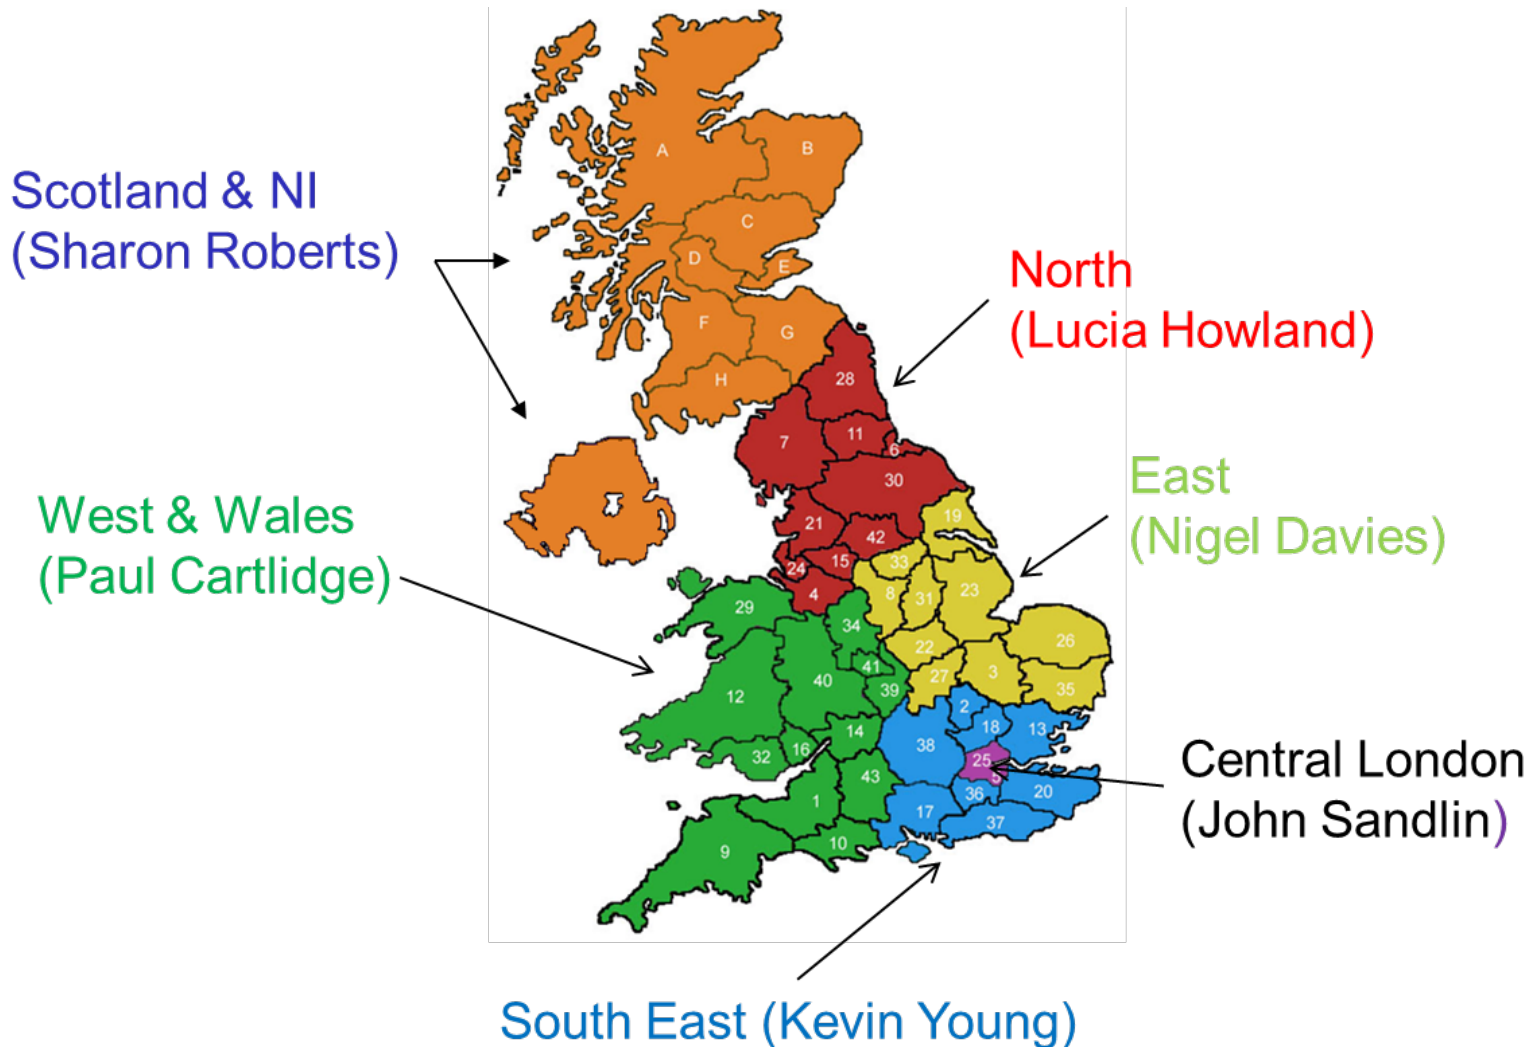

Non Front Line – 1%

1,433,290 licences issued since 2004

5000 intelligence feeds each year

45,813 licence revocations and 36,330 refused

Regional teams

Prosecutions

Security Industry Authority

Average of 30 Criminal investigation cases per year

- Prosecute own cases
- Full costs awarded
- Proceeds of Crime Act

How is the SIA Set up?

- Intelligence Department
- Partnerships and Interventions
- Decisions and desk based teams
- ACS & Quality Care

- Part of the Home Office

What kind of things do we get involved in?

Security Industry Authority

- SOC linked to the security industry
- POCA revocations
- Counter Terrorism Operations
- General Compliance Checks
- Partnership working
- National Operations
- Regional Plans (Operation Kea)

How can we help?

- Share information and intelligence with other HO agencies
- Assist with investigations involving security operatives
- Offer advice and guidance on security services & contracting

End

Security Industry Authority

Questions?